POKER GAME

*"One should always play fairly when one has the winning cards."
Oscar Wilde*

A dandy king of clubs, a heartbreaker with his Louxor vase. A jack of spades with piercing eyes stroking a black panther. A brazen queen of hearts with a glass in her hand. A joker hanging from a Darkside chandelier there to amuse the royal court. Designed by Alexandre Benjamin Navet, the first deck of Baccarat cards takes the player into a joyous imaginary world with vibrantly colored prints. With bold strokes, the multi-skilled artist and designer has drawn a series of tableaux stand side by side to the Maison's iconic products in a dialogue that embraces both heritage and modernity. Playing with the codes, creating emotion, having fun: this crafty master of contemporary drawing has drawn himself into one of the characters. Can you find him?

*Sold in a gift-box of 2 decks of 55 cards, «Made in France»
